BANK WITH YOUR HOME BANK

39 Million Bushels of Wheat Yearly in Oklahoma

Anything that adds with the wealth of Oklahoma also adds to the resources of our more than 600 state banks. Every year millions of dollars are realized from the wheat crop. This money finds its way to all sections of the State.

This bank always has been interested in farming. We help and encourage the farmer in every legitimate banking way and we want the farmers of this community to feel as friendly toward this bank as we feel toward them.

After all we are dependent upon the farmers for prosperity. We are proud of our oil, our coal, our lead and zinc and other industries, but we know that far the greater amount of substantial wealth of the state is produced on the farm.

We invite the farmers of this community to use our bank as their headquarters when in town.

We also want to call your attention to our strong list of stockholders: L. T. Simmons, President Southwest National Bank, Oklahoma City; C. T. Abell, Vice-President Southwest National Bank, Oklahoma City; W. E. Templeton, Capitalist, Tulsa; Miss Nila Stephens and B. R. Stephens, Elgin.

Those who attended the Christmas tree Saturday night seemed to have a good time in the distribution of presents from the tree. A large number of dolls were delivered to the younger children which made them very happy. Deputy Sheriff Bauman received a revolver off the tree about two inches in length.

The Methodist church was crowded Sunday night to hear the program prepared by the Sunday school pupils. The program delivered by the children was fine and was highly appreciated.

Social.

There will be a social given at the Baptist church Wednesday evening. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Elected Officers.

At the Methodist Sunday school Sunday morning H. P. Wettengel informed the school that it would not be possible for him to serve as superintendent any longer, so all new officers were elected for the coming year, as follows:

Miss Lucile Atchley, secretary.
Miss Oatna Barton, asst. secretary.

G. B. Stackhouse.

Succumbing to a complication of diseases from which he had been suffering for several weeks, G. B. Stackhouse, age 67, died last night (Tuesday, Dec. 20) about 10:45 at his home, 718 Oklahoma ave.

Under the auspices of the Elgin Masonic lodge of which Mr. Stackhouse was once master, funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in Elgin. The body will be shipped to the Comanche county town tomorrow morning on Frisco passenger train No. 603, due here at 10:30 o'clock. No services will be conducted here.

Mr. Stackhouse came to Chickasha two years ago from Elgin where he lived for many years. He was born in Orangeville, Ind., June 17, 1854 and moved to Oklahoma in 1903, locating at Geary. Some time ago he opened a barber shop in the Frisco addition and was actively engaged in that business until a short time ago when he was forced to retire on account of his health.

Mr. Stackhouse is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. R. J. Williams of Chickasha; three sons, H. C. Stackhouse of Lawton; C. M. Stackhouse of Elgin, and Frank of Kansas City. Also three brothers, Jena of Beloit, Kan.; Tom of Concordia, Kan. and

A. J. Stackhouse of Perry, Okla., and two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Teasley of Glasco, Kan., and Mrs. Fannie Duffie, of Simpson, Kan.

—Chickasha Daily Express.

Funeral services were conducted in the Elgin Methodist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon by the pastor Rev. H. B. Galyon, after which the Masonic lodge gave their ritual service both in the church and at the Elgin cemetery where he was laid to rest beside the body of his son, Earl, who died of the flu during the war.

Relatives who accompanied the body here to attend the funeral were his wife, his brother, A. J. Stackhouse of Perry, and his son, H. C. Stackhouse, and wife of Lawton.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church and stood true to the teachings of the Bible whether it conflicted with the views of his own church or not. After a pastor of his church had preached the funeral of a man who had lived an immoral life, Mr. Stackhouse remarked that he never wanted that man to preach his funeral, and he didn't.
